DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Embodiment 1, directed to Figure 3A;

Embodiment 2, directed to Figure 3B;

Embodiment 3, directed to Figure 4B;

Embodiment 4, directed to Figure 5;

Embodiment 5, directed to Figure 6.
2. The species are independent or distinct because Embodiments 1-5 are directed to related products. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed have at least materially different designs and modes of operation. For example, Embodiment 1(Figure 3A) and Embodiment 5 (Figure 6) include two hybrid outputs to two photodetectors, while Embodiments 2-4 (Figures 3B, 4B, and 5, respectively) include four hybrid outputs to four photodetectors. Furthermore, of the five embodiments, only Embodiment 3B includes a 4-branch hybrid element; only Embodiment 3 (Figure 4B) includes two local oscillator elements; only Embodiment 4 (Figure 5) includes a polarization splitter; and only Embodiment 5 (Figure 6) includes an electrical oscillator, and unlike the other Embodiments, Embodiment 5 also does not include analog-to-digital converter elements. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

3. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic. Examiner respectfully notes that although some of Applicant's claims appear to recite less specific details than others, no claim is generic in the sense that no claim is directed to all five embodiments (claim 13, for example, recites an A/D converter and a digital signal processor, neither of which are in Embodiment 5).

4. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, Applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, Applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should Applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, Applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
